

IT Project 5

degree programme: BIF

semester: 5

Lecturer: Harald Wahl, Alexander Nimmervoll, Harald Winkelhofer, Alexander Hofmann, Robert Pucher, Alexander Mense

Course methods: UE

ECTS Credits: 6.0

Department: Informatik

Head of Department: Robert Pucher

Department coordinator: Robert Pucher

Learning outcome

- To understand how complex IT projects are done.
- Self responsibility and solution oriented thinking.
- Understanding why life long learning is a requirement in IT

Course Contents

- Working in teams
- Management of complex IT Projects
- Life long learning
- Learning from errors

Prerequisites:

Knowledge of programming, management of IT projects and self-responsibility

Teaching Methods

integrated course

Assessment Methods

project results, credit can be given for projects done with companies

Recommended Reading and Material presentations, case studies, links

Comments

The project has to be done in small groups of two to four students. Selfresponsibility of students is a main objective in the course.